

Welcome a new employee to your organization with a gift.

As part of a strategic onboarding experience, our welcome boxes contain the latest merchandise bundled into three unique options that will capture your organization's culture and fit your budget:

EcoBox

Our eco-friendly box was designed to not only make a visual statement, but also, an environmental one. The EcoBox contains a reusable tumbler and lunch bag, that is branded with your company logo, and comes with a welcome card and a customized box sleeve.

SelectBox

Whether the SelectBox is delivered to a new employee's doorstep or presented on the first day at the office, your new hire will find a fun branded tumbler and welcome card, sealed with a customized box sleeve.

GearBox

Packed with all the gear needed to make a new employee's work area stand out, the GearBox includes a mouse pad, sticky notes, Bluetooth speaker and a pen, branded with your company logo. The GearBox comes with a welcome card and wrapped with a customized box sleeve to represent your organization.
